PERSONAL SUMMARY

A fashion designer from Hong Kong, shaped by living and studying in Milan and San Francisco. With a background in business and fashion, my work balances analytical precision with emotional sensitivity. I create garments defined by structure, softness, and quiet refinement.

INTERNSHIP OBJECTIVE

Applying my business background and my studies in fashion to real-world design projects. Focusing on functionality, innovation, sustainability, and meaningful aesthetics in order to contribute to and learn from a design team that values responsible creativity.
