EXPERIENCE

• Product Development Intern (FREDA SALVADOR)

- Organize samples for fittings, reviews, and cross-functional meetings. Prepare tech packs and manage product corrections with design and development teams. Maintain and organize the material library for footwear and handbag components. Support sample management across development and pre-production stages; track inactive inventory. Conduct trend research and translate insights for the Freda Salvador customer. Handle data entry, reporting, and occasional team travel coordination.

• Design Intern (HAPPENSTANCE)

- Assisted the footwear design team in concept development and final product creation. Collaborated with material, color and product managers to ensure cohesive designs. Created mock-ups, visuals, and drawings to aid in shoe development.

• Marketing Intern (MOSONS EZY)

- Collected and analyzed market trends-consumer preferences, and competitive data. Assisted in developing marketing strategies based on research findings. Designed promotional materials, including flyers, brochures, and digital ads. Supported planning and execution of marketing campaigns and product launches.
