MIRELLA ROMANO

Fashion Designer/ Maker/ Corsetry Enthusiast

Mirella Romano is a fashion designer based in San Francisco, originally from Albuquerque, New Mexico, and a recent Fashion Design graduate from the Academy of Art University. Her work is rooted in garment construction, draping, and a deep appreciation for the way clothing can shape the body. She explores memory, texture, and experimentation through clothing, balancing precision, durability, and craftsmanship with storytelling and individuality. Her collections reflect confidence, attention to detail, and a commitment to creating thoughtful, personal, and expressive garments designed to seduce and intrigue.
